Detailed and Complete Listing of the Claims:

Claims 1-41 and 48-58. (Cancelled).

42. (Original) A child seat comprising:

a base having a seating surface;

an armrest connected to the base on a side of the seating surface;

wherein the armrest is adjustable between first and second positions; and wherein the armrest includes a connecting portion that slidably fits into a corresponding receiving portion of the base.

43. (Original) The seat of claim 42, wherein the receiving portion includes a slot for receiving a tab located on the connecting portion.

44. (Original) The seat of claim 42, wherein the receiving portion includes a second slot and wherein the first and second slots correspond to the first and second positions of the armrest.

45. (Original) The seat of claim 42, wherein the tab is attached to a flexible portion of the connecting portion of the armrest thereby allowing the tab to disengage with the slot when the tab is depressed.

46. (Original) The seat of claim 42, wherein the connecting portion of the armrest includes a pushbutton that engages one of a plurality of holes in the seat base.

47. (Original) A child seat comprising:

a base having a seating surface;

an armrest connected to the base on a side of the seating surface;

wherein the armrest is adjustable between first and second positions; and wherein the armrest includes a connecting portion that slidably fits over a corresponding receiving portion of the base.

59. (New) The seat of claim 47, wherein the armrest includes holes for receiving protrusions from the receiving portion of the base.

60. (New) A child seat comprising:
a base including a seating surface;
an armrest connected to the base on a side of the seating surface;
wherein the armrest is adjustable in a vertical direction; and wherein the armrest includes a tab that fits into a receiving portion of the base.

61. (New) A child seat comprising:
a base having a seating surface;
an armrest connected to the base on a side of the seating surface;
wherein the armrest is adjustable in a vertical direction; wherein the armrest is movable over a receiving portion of the base; and wherein the receiving portion of the base includes a flexible tab and protrusions.
